Re: In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001, No. 03-MDL-1570 (GBD) (SN); Estate of John P. O'Neill, Sr., et al. v. The Republic of Iraq, et al., 04-cv-1076 (GBD)(SN); Taliban Orders at ECF Nos. 7949, 8111, 8150, 8473, and 8695; and Motions for Liability and Damages Judgments at ECF Nos. 8455, 8459, 8528, 8568, 8589, 8595, 8745

Dear Judge Daniels and Judge Netburn:

Pursuant to the discussion at today's court conference, we write to request that the Court enter default judgments as to liability against the Taliban on behalf of all O'Neill Plaintiffs.

By way of background, this Court previously authorized undersigned counsel to add over 3,000 plaintiffs to the above-referenced action against the Taliban, stating that “[p]rior rulings, orders, and judgments entered in this case remain in effect as to all parties”. See Orders, dated May 4, 2022, June 15, 2022, June 28, 2022, August 30, 2022, and October 31, 2022, ECF Nos. 7949, 8111, 8150, 8473, and 8695 (the “Orders”). This Court previously entered a judgment of liability as to the plaintiffs originally named in the Complaint. See Order, dated October 13, 2015, ECF No. 3067; see also ECF Nos. 3163, 3043-1. Undersigned counsel then moved the Court for default judgments as to liability and damages against the Taliban. See ECF Nos. 8455, 8459, 8528, 8568, 8589, 8595, 8745. In those judgment motions, undersigned counsel noted that “[i]n light of this Court’s prior Orders, the motion for the extension of the liability judgments against the Taliban to the Additional O’Neill Plaintiffs may not be necessary.” See, e.g., ECF No. 8748 at p. 9, fn. 7.

During today’s conference a proposal was offered for the Court by one group of plaintiffs to enter an order of attachment over the Da Afghanistan Bank assets, on behalf of all 9/11 plaintiffs who hold liability judgments against the Taliban to ensure “equal footing” for all members of the 9/11 community with claims against the Taliban. I advised that based on this Court's prior orders, there could be some uncertainty as to whether entering such an attachment order would benefit the 3,000+ plaintiffs previously added to the O'Neill case against the Taliban.

In response, the proponents' counsel confirmed that they had no objection to the Court entering liability judgments against the Taliban immediately on behalf of all O'Neill Plaintiffs with pending claims to enable the potential use of an order of attachment to secure the assets while litigation continues. No objections were raised to this requested clarification at the hearing.

In light of the forgoing, all O'Neill Plaintiffs with pending claims against the Taliban respectfully request that the Court either clarify that its prior Orders extended the original O'Neill liability judgment, see ECF Nos. 3067, 3163, 3043-1, to all other O'Neill Plaintiffs with pending claims against the Taliban, nunc pro tunc to the date of the Orders, dated May 4, 2022, June 15, 2022, June 28, 2022, August 30, 2022, and October 31, 2022, ECF Nos. 7949, 8111, 8150, 8473, and 8695. Alternatively, we respectfully request that the Court extend the liability judgments already entered for the O'Neill family to the Additional O'Neill Plaintiffs with pending claims against the Taliban, See Fifth Amended First Consolidated Complaint, at ECF No. 8702, Appendix 1.

We thank the Court for its attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jerry S. Goldman
